Son of mine...

March 3, 2009

To my son of mine,

Your life here on earth is done...

You left so many loved ones behind, so we must go on...

The one whom you belong to has more rights than I...

Your smile weighs on my heart..

There is a love between us-that no distance can part..

Your innocent blood, your gentle eyes, in hope and trust turned to the skies...

But, now I leave your soul to rest, for I know you are with the best..

Forever in my heart, Love Mom

Beth

Holidays

December 3, 2008

To all of Corey's friends and family.

The holidays are coming and we all need to stick together and remember all the times we have shared with Corey. He will be by us through it all and he would want us all to enjoy the time with family and friends. Holidays were his favorite thing since he was little and we need to carry that on for him. He will be watching and hopefully his Christmas is beautiful in Heaven.

Mom

Missing You

October 5, 2008

To all of Corey's friends and family...

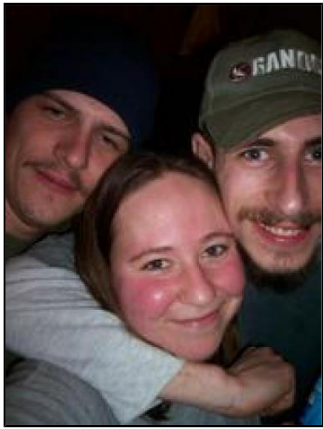

Always remember the good times you had with Corey and keep them close to your hearts for that is where he will always be..He is now our guardian angel and will guide us through the rest of our lives..We love you Corey and miss you dearly!

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Sierra Spoor

Where to begin with the memories...

From the time I moved up here with my grandparents Corey and I were friends.

A few memories weve shared are...

hmm when we used to hang out at Aunt Melissas house during bingo at the fire station on wednesday nights..that was always a blast..going to park waiting for my grandmother to get done bingo and just sitting on the swings talking...what we didnt talk about..

OOOOhh and the one night I snuck out and we decided to go for a walk at 3 am down the atwood rd just because we were bored..and wanted to hang out..

OHH and lets not forget the New Years Eve party we had and You, Michelle and Lee came..WOW what a night i must say...you were dancing all over the pool table..that was sooo funny.. and we danced all night just about..then after the night was done..you just about passed out in my living room...after puking all over the couch and floor and yourself...lol then we gave you that bag and you stuck it over your head trying to get sick in it..hilarious.. and Michelle trying to dress you in a pair of Toms pj pants..wow that was def a challenge..We def had some good times Corey. You are greatly missed by sooo many!!

Mom and Aunt Lisa

This memory is from your Aunt Lisa and me..

you. Love mom and Aunt Lisa

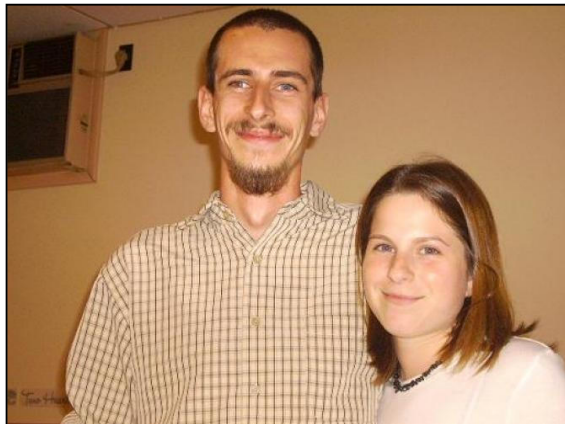

PS..This pic is the only time I knew you weren't doing something crazy (maybe that was the times you were planning it all)..

The day all you, Lee, Levi, Shanon and Jessica were digging in the woods to find old bottles and you cut the tip of your finger off and threw it away cuz it was dirty and all the boys went back in the woods to find it..crazy!

And when we lived on the Irish Settlement Road and you and Levi decided to play chicken with a knife and you sliced his finger opened..another trip to the ER..

You did some crazy things but after the maddness was over we could laugh about it.. I miss those crazy things you did.. We love had the brilliant idea to drive some home...Until the next day after school when the investagators were at moms house. Sorry guys...I didn't do it...So it was wayyy too funny for me. Corey was a great cook....But wasn't so great at making maple syrup candy...He found this out when the stove caught on fire. But to make it better...He tried to put out the fire on an electric stove by throwing water on it...hmm. Dad would

Jessica Lynne Spoor

There are soooo many memories...Corey was so crazy all the time. I remember one night when mom was living on Irish Settlement Rd...Mom was gone one night and Corey had a few drinks and deecided that he would answer the door to the pizza guy in his boxers and act gay...Wouldn't you have loved to deliver pizza that night. But to top the night off...He stayed in his boxers and ran down the middle of the road when it was snowing out. Like I said Crazy! Or the biggest memory about the Irish Settlement Rd...Corey, Lee, Heather, taking a nice long walk out back and realizing that there were trucks that had power wheels in them and have loved to be there for that one. Just a few for now...I would be here writing for a year if I listed everything. I love you and miss you Corey!

Hez

Where to begin.... How about the night we left our bikes at the end of the o'neil road and took a cab to plattsburgh and got wasted on the roof of the longbranch. When we finally made it back to our bikes the ride down the road was crazy. I think you must have fallen off about a dozen times!! Or how about the time we had the crazy idea to make a tattoo gun? I will never forget how excited you were to plug it in. I also wont forget the large bang that followed and all the lights in the house going out. And if that wasnt enough you did it more than once...lol. You never failed to amuse me Corey. Even if I didnt feel like laughing you always made sure to get at least one out of me. Thank you.

Katrina Patricia Burnell

Well I can remember some crazy memories of Corey too. One I mostly remember is his 21st birthday party and if you were there then you know what I'm talking about. Its too crazy too post online. But it was a blast. A good nite. I also remember new years eve when we were all down at the lower deck. Oh and the time mommy beth was on the phone with the landlord and she got mad and we went down to play pool because she had her pocket knife and through it across the table because she got mad. that was funny. I'm going to miss you!

Carly Grace

I can remember a lot of crazy memories of Corey... The funiest memory that I have is Corey's birthday party on RT9!! God Beth that was awesome!! Everyone was looking for him like crazy, and he was passed out in the bushes the whole time!! God, I still laugh to myself everytime I think of that! He was such a happy person... He loved making people laugh and he loved having a good time, even if it meant making a fool of himself!! I love you Corey, and I'm going to miss you like crazy..

Mom

There are so many memories that I will hold in my heart forever...

Here are a few: (more to come later)

You and Lee painting your body with finger paint..

When you cut your own hair and try to use a glue stick to put it back on..

Your crazy hair cuts...

The love you gave to every one..and the smiles yo put on peoples face when you showed up..

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open rose with visible petals. The roses are rendered in a slightly lighter, more detailed tone than the background, giving them a subtle, embossed appearance.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

January 6, 1984

There is way to much to write about Corey (who knows him knows what I mean).

He was ALWAYS out to please people, he knew how to put a smile on everyones face no matter what was going on in their life. He was a teachers pet (until high school, then he was their worst nightmare..lol..he always tried to be the keeper of Jessica and Lee and sometimes he tried to be their mom and dad, they hated it but it grew on them, they learned to deal with it and ended up looking up to him. Since he was able to walk he was always helping us do things and never stopped. He would take the shirt off his back to help someone, but piss him off and you didn't want to be around him. He did his bad things in life but that is how he learned on his own about right and wrong. Then he meant Michelle and started to grow up. And after Schyler was born he really grew up, made me real proud! He loves his holidays, decorating was his thing (just like his dad). He loves doing things for his daughter no matter what he was so proud of the things she did. And she is gona keep amazing all of us and with him watching over her he 'll make sure she is doing great!
